FLEURIEU LIVING MAGAZINE

THE BEST OF THE FLEURIEU PENINSULA AND KANGAROO ISLAND

Fleurieu Living Magazine is a glossy lifestyle publication that showcases the best of the Fleurieu region, including Kangaroo Island. It seeks out the most interesting stories – informs through intelligent writing and inspires through beautiful photography.

Published quarterly to cross over the seasons, Fleurieu Living Magazine is targeted at long-time residents, newcomers and visitors alike. Each issue features a blend of the finest in food and wine, homes and gardens, accommodation and destinations. It introduces readers to local artists, designers and writers; and includes information on must-see regional events and must-do activities.

A unique opportunity

While South Australia as a whole generally records lower than average population growth, the Fleurieu region – encompassing the municipalities of Alexandrina, Onkaparinga, Victor Harbor and Yankalilla – consistently bucks this trend. With its proximity to Adelaide and its spectacular landscape, the Fleurieu also attracts around three million visitors each year. As the only local publication of its kind, Fleurieu Living Magazine presents a unique opportunity to market your brand to a diverse and discerning adult audience. Its distinctive mix of content provides broad appeal, making it an outstanding marketing tool for attracting both new and repeat business.

Distribution

Fleurieu Living Magazine is distributed by Integrated Publication Solutions to newsagents across South Australia and is also widely available throughout the Fleurieu region in wineries, restaurants, cafes and B&Bs. Six years in, the magazine has developed a dedicated following and boasts very high reader engagement.

FLM is also available in Qantas Club lounges across Australia and subscriptions are available in print and digital form (through the Zinio app via iTunes AppStore and Google Play) worldwide.
